Improved Uniform International Sunday School Lesson

Lesson for December 9
PAUL GOES TO ROME

LESSON TEXT—Rom. 13:1-14:11
GOLDEN TEXT—I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ for it is the power of God unto salvation to every one that believeth.

PRIMER TEXT—Paul and a storm at sea.
JUNIOR TEXT—Paul's Voyage to Rome.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Paul Makes the Most of Circumstances.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULTS—Paul's Leadership in Paul's Life.

1. Paul's Longing to See the Romans (1:1-15).

2. Paul's center of the world's power and influence, Paul longed to visit that metropolis with the gospel so that it might find its way from that center to all parts of the world.

3. Paul's vision of the Roman church was concerned.

4. That he might impart to them some spiritual gift to the end that they might be established.

5. That he might be comforted by their fellowship. There is a reciprocal relationship between the minister and the people unto whom he ministers.

6. Paul's Voyage to Rome (Acts 27).

7. The ship (v. 1-6).

8. Paul's escape from Alexandria sailing from Syria to Italy.

9. The company (v. 11, 12).

10. Two of Paul's friends, Aristarchus and Luke, were permitted to go with him. Besides these three, there were two hundred and seventy others in the ship (v. 27).

11. Overtaken by a storm (v. 7-10).

12. Paul had advised that they winter in Fair Haven (v. 9, 10), but his advice was unheeded. The gentle south wind deceived them so they were lost from Crete, only to be overtaken by the tempestuous wind called Euroclydon.

13. Paul's severe illness (v. 21-26).

14. His rebuke for failure to heed his advice (v. 21).

15. How he saved the ship and the lives of all on board (v. 22).

16. The source of his information (v. 23, 24). It was revealed unto him by the angel of God.

17. The reason for Paul's faith (v. 25).

18. "Whom I am and whom I serve." The consciousness of having been chosen by God and being engaged in His service enables one in the midst of the most violent storm to rest in God.

19. The ship's crew all safe on land (v. 27, 28, 29).

20. This was exactly as the Lord had said (v. 28).

21. The hospitable reception by the natives (v. 29).

22. They built a fire and made the shipwrecked people as comfortable as possible in the cold and rain.

23. Paul gathering sticks for the fire (v. 3).

24. Paul bitten by a poisonous serpent (v. 3). Among the sticks gathered there was a serpent which had already coiled itself up to his winter's sleep, but when warned by the fire it darted at Paul and fastened its fangs upon his hand. At first the ship's crew thought that Paul had been killed, but he reassured them that he was not hurt.

25. Mr. F. B. Moore, a Civil War veteran, is quite sick at his home.

26. Mr. W. E. Moore continues feeble.

27. Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Taylor both are very much complaining.

28. Miss Mary West, teacher at Mt. Zion, spent Thanksgiving in Richmond.

FOREST VIEW

Thanksgiving passed off quietly with the exception of a bang of a gun now and then.

Mrs. Hunter Woodridge, her son Earl and his wife of Lynchburg, visited T. J. Nash Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meadows and two daughters, Louise and Marvyn, of Richmond, spent Thanksgiving with her father, S. J. Lee and on Friday visited Mrs. Tilden Lee.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lee were week-end guests of her parents Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Martin recently.

It was so sad, the death of Mrs. J. D. Cawthorn of Evergreen. Everyone who knew her loved her and we extend to the family our sincere sympathy.

Last Thursday night Mr. and Mrs. Robert Meadows and two daughters, Louise and Marvyn, of Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lee visited in the home of R. W. Martin.

Mr. Frank Nash had a corn shucking last Friday—large crowd and a good dinner.

Killing hogs is the order of the day now.

Central

The ladies of Central Baptist church will give an oyster and meat supper at Chap. December 8th, beginning at 3 o'clock.

Come everybody and get your supper and see husbands and sweethearts buy your wives and best girl a useful Christmas present from our bazaar table.

The congregation of Central church were given a very pleasant as well as helpful surprise last Sunday by Rev. Caudle's wife and Mrs. James, the former giving us such an up-lifting and inspiring talk touching on missions, while Mrs. James, Nathan Marshall Sunday and Mrs. Cooke attended services at Central.

Wishing all the readers of the TIMES a merry Christmas and you also Mr. Editor.

Beckham

It has been quite a while since I have had any news for this paper.

Killing hogs seems to be the order of the day, also can hear the humming of the feet cutting and singing of the wood saw.

Everybody getting ready for Christmas and the winter months.

Mr. F. B. Moore, a Civil War veteran, is quite sick at his home.

Mr. W. E. Moore continues feeble.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Taylor both are very much complaining.

CAPITAL REVIVES OLD-TIME DANCE

Debutantes Lengthen Skirts for Staid Steps.

Washington.—Turning completely away from the jazz of recent years, Washington society this winter will revive the staid, old-fashioned cotillon as quite the latest and most correct thing in dancing.

Debutantes who figure largely on the season's calendar are eagerly planning lengthened frocks of tulle, girdlers to match the dignified skirts of the cotillon. They are consulting their dressers concerning the knots of curls to attach to their bobbed locks.

Invitations for the first of the affair to be given at the Mayflower hotel December 10 by the Washington Frocks are already out. The list of the committee in charge is thickly sprinkled with honorables and generals and commodores.

All sorts of novel stunts and favors are being planned. There will be two orchestras, one imported from New York. Favors, by which the men will find their partners, will eclipse anything seen in Washington for many a day. The older members of the Frocks club who are versed in the ceremonious etiquette of a former day when society alone in staid splendor instead of scintillating jazz, will lead the younger generation through the figures of the cotillon.

Not alone the cotillon, but the fact that many of the season's debutantes will emerge into the social limelight with not only one cotillon party, but two, makes this season unique. Hereafter one tea or one ball was deemed sufficient to give Miss Debbies her due, but now many of the younger set are demanding both.
